NATO SUMMER ACADEMY 2005
“Ukraine’s Euro-Atlantic Integration: National Security Challenges and Prospects” for Young Regional Political, Public Leaders and NGO Representatives

04 – 06 July, 2005

Tavrida National V.I. Vernadsky University
Prospect Vernadskogo 4
Simferopol
Autonomous Republic of Crimea
Ukraine

Organized by Tavrida National V.I. Vernadsky University with the support of NATO Information and Documentation Centre in Ukraine

Concept
- To provide young political and public leaders and NGO representatives with the first hand information on Euro-Atlantic integration of Ukraine and national security issues
- To bring speakers dealing with Euro-Atlantic integration of Ukraine and national security issues to stimulate the exchange of knowledge and ideas
- To talk about the 21st century concept of security and the way that NATO relates to it
- To discuss the issue of implementing defense and security sector reform in the aftermath of the new political situation
- To make use of communication technologies with several video-bridges per day with a live debate with NATO HQ representatives
- To publish the materials resulting from the Courses on a CD

Preliminary panels
- New Security Challenges for NATO, Ukraine and Russia
- NATO’s Defense Sector Reform and Current Operations
- NATO-Ukraine Intensified Dialogue: Hopes and Opportunities
- New Political Situation: Challenges for Ukraine’s Euro-Atlantic Integration Process
- Public Opinion on NATO in Ukraine from a Regional and Sociological Perspective
- Implementing Defense and Security Sector Reform in the Aftermath of the New Political Situation
- New NATO Countries, Neighbors and Ukraine’s Euro-Atlantic Integration
- Role of NATO and Ukraine in managing security and solving regional conflicts
- Ukraine Euro Atlantic-Integration as Viewed in the Regions of Ukraine

Academy Languages
English, Ukrainian, Russian

To take part in The Academy it is necessary to complete the enclosed application form

Selection criteria
There are 45 (forty-five) participants to be selected. Preference will be given to Young Regional Political, Public Leaders and NGO Representatives who have:
- Experience in the field
- Good spoken English
- Leadership experience
- Strong analytical skills, willingness and ability to debate
- Evidence of interest

Application deadline – 13 June, 2005 (5 p.m.)
Results of selection will be announced on 16 June, 2005

Expenses
All accommodation, transportation costs and meals will be covered by the organizers.

Completed application forms, please, forward by the deadline to Iraida Mamedova
Contact Person for Applicants
Email: mamedova_iraida@ukr.net

Additional Information
Andriy Martovoy
NATO SA Coordinator
Email: martovoy@crimea.edu

Alternate Contact for NATO Embassies in Kyiv
John Karwatsky
NATO Information and Documentation Center (Kyiv)
Email: j.karwatsky@ukrpac.net